

National Carers Conference in Eating Disorders on Friday 23rd June 2017

Professor Janet Treasure OBE and Gill Todd RMN, MSc, have produced an exciting programme of speakers who are delighted to share their views informed by research, knowledge and experience based around working and living with Eating Disorders. The day is aimed at all Carers of people with Eating Disorders including professionals. The day will also include the book launch for the 2nd edition of "Skills-based Caring for a Loved One with an Eating Disorder" by Treasure, Smith and Crane.

Current speakers are:

- KEYNOTE SPEAKER Dr Paul Robinson - Research Consultant Psychiatrist "SEED: modern management of the most severe and enduring Eating Disorders"
- Emma Bacon - ED Consultant on Recovery ideas and plans
- Dr Cerisse Gunasinghe - "Genetic Research"
- Jenny Langley - Carer "Running Carer Skills Support Groups for West Kent"
- Andrew Radford CEO B-eat - Early intervention and better resourcing - Beat's campaign to get help to more people faster.
- Dr Hubertus Himmerich SLAM ED team - "Medications"
- The team from Dorset ED CAHMS and Adult services - "Carer Skills Training in Dorset – Transforming Services Collaboratively"
- Professor Janet Treasure - "Collaborative Care to Improve Transitions from Inpatient Care"

- Questions and Thank Yous
- Time: Registration 08.30am - Start 09.30am - 17.00pm Cost: £85 including refreshments and lunch. Venue: The Wolfson Lecture Theatre, The Institute of Psychiatry, 16 De Crespigny Park, London SE5 8AF (Nearest station – Denmark Hill) There is disabled access.
- To book a place please contact: Veronica Kamerling at Eating Disorders & Carers T: 01252 444954 – M: 07733260475 E: veronica@talktalkbusiness.net or book online at: www.eatingdisordersandcarers.co.uk